Welcome! The mission of this monthly article is to spotlight individuals from around the world who have achieved the highest standard in the nail industry...that of celebrity stardom! That's why I've titled it 'Headliners and Legends'.

'Headliners' are those who are currently at the top of the nail profession, who have proven their abilities by winning first place positions in the competition arena.

'Legends' are those who have achieved this status multiple times, and in some cases have become household names. In this series I salute those who reach this level of acclaim!

For those who have always wanted to elevate to this level, stay tuned... I plan to give you loads of information on how you too can rise to 'the top of the heap'.
